*To be eligible to compete in any evaluation, humorous, tall tales and table topics speech contests, an individual must be a Toastmaster in good standing of a club in good standing. For the International Speech Contest a member must also have completed at least six speech projects in the Communication and Leadership Program manual and have been a member since the previous July 1. For the International Speech Contest these requirements are waived only for a charter member of a club chartered since July 1. The club must be officially chartered prior to the area contest.

The following are ineligible for competition in any speech contest: incumbent International Officers and Directors or candidates for these offices; District officers (District Governor, Immediate Past District Governor, any Lieutenant Governor, Area Governor, Secretary or Treasurer) whose terms expire June 30; District officers or announced candidates for the term beginning the upcoming July 1. Past first place winners of the International Speech Contest are not eligible to compete at any level of the International Speech Contest. The immediate past winner for the regional Humorous Speech Contest is not eligible to compete at any level in the current year's Humorous Speech Contest.

A Toastmaster who is a member in more than one club and meets all other eligibility requirements may compete in each club contest in which he or she is a member in good standing. However, should he or she win more than one, he/she can represent only one of them at any level beyond the club. No Toastmaster can compete in more than one area contest. even if the two areas are in different divisions or different districts.

Note: This form is to be completed by each contestant and submitted before the contest to the chief judge at each level of competition.
